About the development

Plaza Laderas will be a retail development in PR-1 in the municipality of Caguas, Puerto Rico. The free-standing retail buildings will provide a diverse range of opportunities, making it an ideal destination for both established brands and emerging retailers. Whether you are a fast food restaurant or a boutique shop, there will be customizable spaces available to suit your specific needs. With an average traffic count of 43,103 cars daily and outstanding visibility, your brand will enjoy maximum exposure in this commercial hub. Upon completion, Plaza Laderas will successfully address the current lack of retail options and fast food restaurants in the PR-1 Caguas area, providing a much-needed variety for the community.
