In Florida, Polk County is a leading contributor to the state's economy and politics. Concerning the local economy, industries like citrus, cattle, agriculture, and phosphate have all played extremely vital roles in Polk County. An increase in tourist revenue has also significantly contributed to the county's economic growth in recent years. As the heart of Central Florida, Polk County's location between the Tampa and Orlando Metropolitan Areas has aided in the development and growth of the area. Residents and visitors alike are drawn to the unique character of the county's numerous heritage sites, cultural venues, stunning natural landscapes, and plentiful outdoor activities.

Conveniently located along the I-4 corridor, Lakeland is a vibrant community offering great access to both Tampa and Orlando. With a population of just over 120,000, the city limits cover an impressive 74.4 square miles. At the core of its community, Lakeland is also home to an abundance of lakes that provide scenic views as well as ample recreational opportunities for its residents. Much of Lakeland's culture and iconic neighborhoods are built around the 38 named lakes found within the city.

Just as vital to the community, Downtown Lakeland is a lively and enjoyable scene for residents and visitors alike. Dubbed "Lakeland's living room", Downtown Lakeland truly embodies the city's community spirit. This dynamic community boasts quaint shops, casual restaurants, pubs, craft breweries, and fine-dining experiences in and around the historic brick buildings surrounding the historic Munn Park town square.

Embracing the City of Lakeland's rich history, tree-lined brick streets can be found winding through various historic neighborhoods of the community. The city is also home to several educational institutions, including Southeastern University, Florida Polytechnic University, Polk State College, and Florida Southern College, which hosts Frank Lloyd Wright's most extensive on-site collection of architecture.

Direct: 877.518.5263 x416 | Cell: 863.272.7169

FL #SL578607

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

David A. Goffe, CCIM is a Senior Advisor at SVN | Saunders Ralston Dantzler Real Estate in Lakeland, Florida.

David is a Florida native with a rich legacy in Florida real estate. His family was one of the earliest settlers in the Englewood Florida area in the 1800s and his father established HT Goffe Realty in Palm Beach Florida in the 1960s.

David has been active in the local real estate market for over 29 years and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member designee [CCIM]. He also holds the Short Sale Resource certification [SFR] and the Certified Distressed Property Expert [CDPE] professional designations.

His broad range of experience includes sales and leasing for retail and industrial properties, single family investment portfolios, property development, and medical office and single tenant sales and leasing.

David uses computer-based models and mapping tools in combination with his years of experience in real estate to identify locations where businesses will succeed.

This level of detailed property knowledge allows David to excel both in “user seeking site” [site selection] as well as “site seeking use” [lease marketing for property owners/landlords] transactions. He is particularly talented in matching tenants with available space and/or sites for development.

David specializes in:

- Retail Properties
- Commercial Properties
- Industrial Properties
- Tenant Site Selection
