AREA OVERVIEW

PANAMA CITY, FL

Panama City is alive with activity as it houses quaint specialty shops and superb local dining establishments all within close proximity to some of the nation's most enticing beaches. The city has been listed as one of the best small art towns in America, consequently housing the Marina Civic Center and the Visual Arts Center, which provide a wide variety of cultural and entertainment opportunities for Panama City residents.

With numerous city parks hosting festivals, musical and theatrical performances, and markets, Panama City also hosts a multitude of other year-round events, including The Blessing of the Fleet, The Annual Spring Boat Show, A Classic Car Show, Spring Festival of the Arts, The Annual Independence Day Celebration, Oktoberfest, First Friday, and Concerts in the Park.

Furthermore, Panama City boasts rich opportunities for fishing, boating, and all varieties of water sports thanks to its Gulf Coast location. The Northwest Florida city also offers several golf courses and other opportunities for sports activities. The almost-perfect weather, friendly atmosphere, numerous activities, and exciting possibilities combine to make Panama City a great place to visit and an even better place to call home.

ECONOMY

More than ever, Panama City is booming with events and activities. As the county seat of Bay County, Panama City encourages new or relocating industries and businesses to consider the area for there are many opportunities for growth and development. Panama City's main retail center is Pier Park on the beach and Panama City Mall across the Hathaway Bridge in town. Home to Tyndall Air Force Base and the U.S. Navy's Naval Support Activity Panama City, two military bases, Panama City has a large federal government presence.

Continued economic growth and success can be attributed to the Port of Panama City and the Panama City and St. Andrew's Marinas. Protected by St. Andrews Bay, Port Panama City is a growing port that handles a wide variety of cargo ranging from standard shipping containers to delicate cargo. Port Panama City is perfectly situated along Northwest Florida's Emerald Coast, providing a Gulf Coast gateway to shippers in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, and the Carolinas.

SHELL ISLAND

Shell Island is a 7-mile stretch undeveloped barrier island running east to west between the Gulf of Mexico and the St. Andrew Bay. It features sand dunes, a coastal scrub forest, pine hammocks, and an inland lake where deer, shorebirds, and other coastal creatures like to hang out. It is a favorite spot for locals and visitors to unwind.

ST. ANDREW STATE PARK

Situated on the far eastern edge of Panama City Beach, St. Andrew State Park is one of Florida's most popular and most visited state parks due to its white-sand beaches, emerald, green waters, natural trails, and Shell Island boat tours.

AARON BESSANT PARK

Located within walking distance of the Gulf and Pier Park, Aaron Bessant Park is made up of 70 acres of lawns featuring a state-of-the-art amphitheater and walking trails. The park hosts several events and festivals each year making it the best park for outdoor recreation.

PIER PARK

Known for its annual New Year's Eve Beach Ball Drop, Pier Park is the premier shopping and entertainment destination in Panama City. The outdoor shopping center offers over 120 retail and dining amenities. Popular stores include Target, Dillard's, and JCPenney and popular restaurants include Margaritaville, Osaka Japanese Hibachi Steakhouse and Sushi Bar, and Back Porch Seafood and Oyster House.
