PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This former mushroom growing facility consists of more than 230,000 Square Feet on 80 acres, and is located in the Northwest Orlando market, only 40 minutes from Disney. The property is currently outside of Orange County's Urban Service Area, but is a candidate for long-term redevelopment, with utilities nearby and a school board owned property adjacent to the east.

The facility has a variety of features perfect for an agricultural or food related user. One of which is the generous amount of unused land which can be used for development or growing operations. The building has a temperature and humidity controlled growing area, as well as cold storage and maintenance building. The recently replaced membrane roof, ample electricity, and fire suppression makes the building a versatile asset for many users.
