PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Clayton Taylor is an Associate Advisor at Saunders Real Estate

Clayton was born and raised in Lakeland as a sixth-generation Floridian. While attending Santa Fe Catholic High School, he began to develop strong leadership and teamwork skills as a key player on the school's baseball team. He continued his passion for baseball at Santa Fe College before transferring to the University of Florida. There, he earned a Bachelor of Science in Food and Resource Economics, which would enrich his understanding of agriculture, land use, and real estate. While at UF, Clayton held various leadership roles in the Kappa Alpha Order, notably serving as the chapter's Vice President.

Prior to becoming a real estate advisor, Clayton worked with a land management company, where he deepened his knowledge of landowner needs and how to enhance the value of their properties. This role provided him with practical experience in managing various land types and addressing the challenges faced by property owners. Adding to his expertise in the land real estate industry, Clayton would later complete an internship with SVN | Saunders Ralston Dantzler. Having been mentored by the firm's expert land brokers, he is able to help clients effectively navigate the real estate process, upholding the highest standards of due diligence.

In his spare time, Clayton is an avid outdoorsman who enjoys duck, deer, and turkey hunting.

Clayton specializes in:

- Residential Development
- Agriculture
- Ranch
- Hunting & Recreation
