Professional Background

Tim Sennett, MBA, ALC, CCIM is a Senior Advisor at Saunders Real Estate.

Since his first sale in 1985, Tim has specialized in the commercial and vacant land sector. In 1999, he earned his CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member) designation. Tim also holds his ALC (Accredited Land Consultant) designation through the REALTORS® Land Institute (RLI). His experience, combined with his CCIM and ALC recognitions, qualifies Tim as an expert in land and commercial real estate.

Tim has received numerous awards in his field, including Realtor of the Year. He has served various roles under REALTOR® Associations—including President—and has chaired several committees, like the Commercial Committee. Currently, Tim serves on the national Governmental Affairs Committee of the REALTORS® Land Institute (RLI) and serves on the board of directors for the RLI Florida Chapter.

Tim has served on the City of Leesburg's Planning and Zoning Commission for 16 years—13 years as chairman—and is a 2002 graduate of Leadership Lake County. He has twice served as President on the local hospice operations board as well as been selected to be on their Board Emeritus. Tim has also served on the Board of Directors for Central Florida Health Alliance, the two local hospitals' governing board, and four times as president on the local Boys and Girls Club Board. He has been awarded President of the Year, Jaycee of the Year, and his Senatorship from the United States, Florida, and Leesburg Jaycee organizations.

In pursuing his education, Tim earned an AA from Lake Sumter Community College, a BA in Business from Barry University, and an MBA from Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins College.

Tim was born in Florida and grew up in the Leesburg area. He has two daughters, Jessie and Tre'Lannah, and two "grandbuddies," Jackson and Jonah.
