In Florida, Polk County is a leading contributor to the state's economy and politics. Concerning the local economy, industries like citrus, cattle, agriculture, and phosphate have all played extremely vital roles in Polk County. An increase in tourist revenue has also significantly contributed to the county's economic growth in recent years. As the heart of Central Florida, Polk County's location between the Tampa and Orlando Metropolitan Areas has aided in the development and growth of the area. Residents and visitors alike are drawn to the unique character of the county's numerous heritage sites, cultural venues, stunning natural landscapes, and plentiful outdoor activities. Polk County has a 2025 estimated population of 826,000.

Conveniently located along the I-4 corridor, Lakeland is a vibrant community offering great access to both Tampa and Orlando. With a population of more than 125,000, the city limits cover an impressive 74.4 square miles. At the core of its community, Lakeland is also home to an abundance of lakes that provide scenic views as well as ample recreational opportunities for its residents. Much of Lakeland's culture and iconic neighborhoods are built around the 38 named lakes found within the city.

Just as vital to the community, Downtown Lakeland is a lively and enjoyable scene for residents and visitors alike. Dubbed 'Lakeland's living room,' Downtown Lakeland truly embodies the city's community spirit. This dynamic community boasts quaint shops, casual restaurants, pubs, craft breweries, and fine-dining experiences in and around the historic brick buildings surrounding the historic Munn Park town square.

Embracing the City of Lakeland's rich history, tree-lined brick streets can be found winding through various historic neighborhoods of the community. The city is also home to several educational institutions, including Southeastern University, Florida Polytechnic University, Polk State College, and Florida Southern College, which hosts Frank Lloyd Wright's most extensive on-site collection of architecture.
