Business 41 serves as a key north-south corridor, providing direct access to Sarasota, Downtown Bradenton, and Palmetto, and connecting to Interstate 275, which links east to Interstate 75 and west to St. Petersburg.

The surrounding area has experienced significant recent growth, with several national retailers located just north of the property, including CVS Pharmacy, Walgreens, Dollar Tree, and the highly trafficked Publix Super Markets, which serves thousands of customers each week.

This prominent junction is home to major destinations such as the Bradenton Area Convention Center, host of the Manatee County Fair, and the Palmetto Marriott Resort & Spa, a premier 252-room luxury resort.

Traffic in this area is only continuing to increase continuing to drive up this corridor in value and popularity.

The property adjacent to the Palmetto Police Department as well as Popi's Place, a locally loved, Greek-owned diner-style restaurant that has been serving the community since 1983. With multiple locations throughout the Sarasota-Manatee area, it is a well-established draw to the immediate trade area.
