Located in the established commercial corridor of Kissimmee, the freestanding flex building at 1429 Smith Street offers a highly functional and accessible presence for a range of commercial and service users. The property is well-positioned with convenient access to major thoroughfares, supporting efficient distribution, storage, and day-to-day operations. Featuring adaptable flex space suitable for a wide range of commercial uses, or owner-user occupancy, the building presents a strong opportunity for both investors and owner-users seeking a foothold in the growing Osceola County market. Surrounded by complementary and diverse commercial trade areas, the property benefits from a business-friendly setting with proximity to Central Florida's key employment and logistics hubs.

Positioned for Success

Close Proximity to Kissimmee downtown corridor.

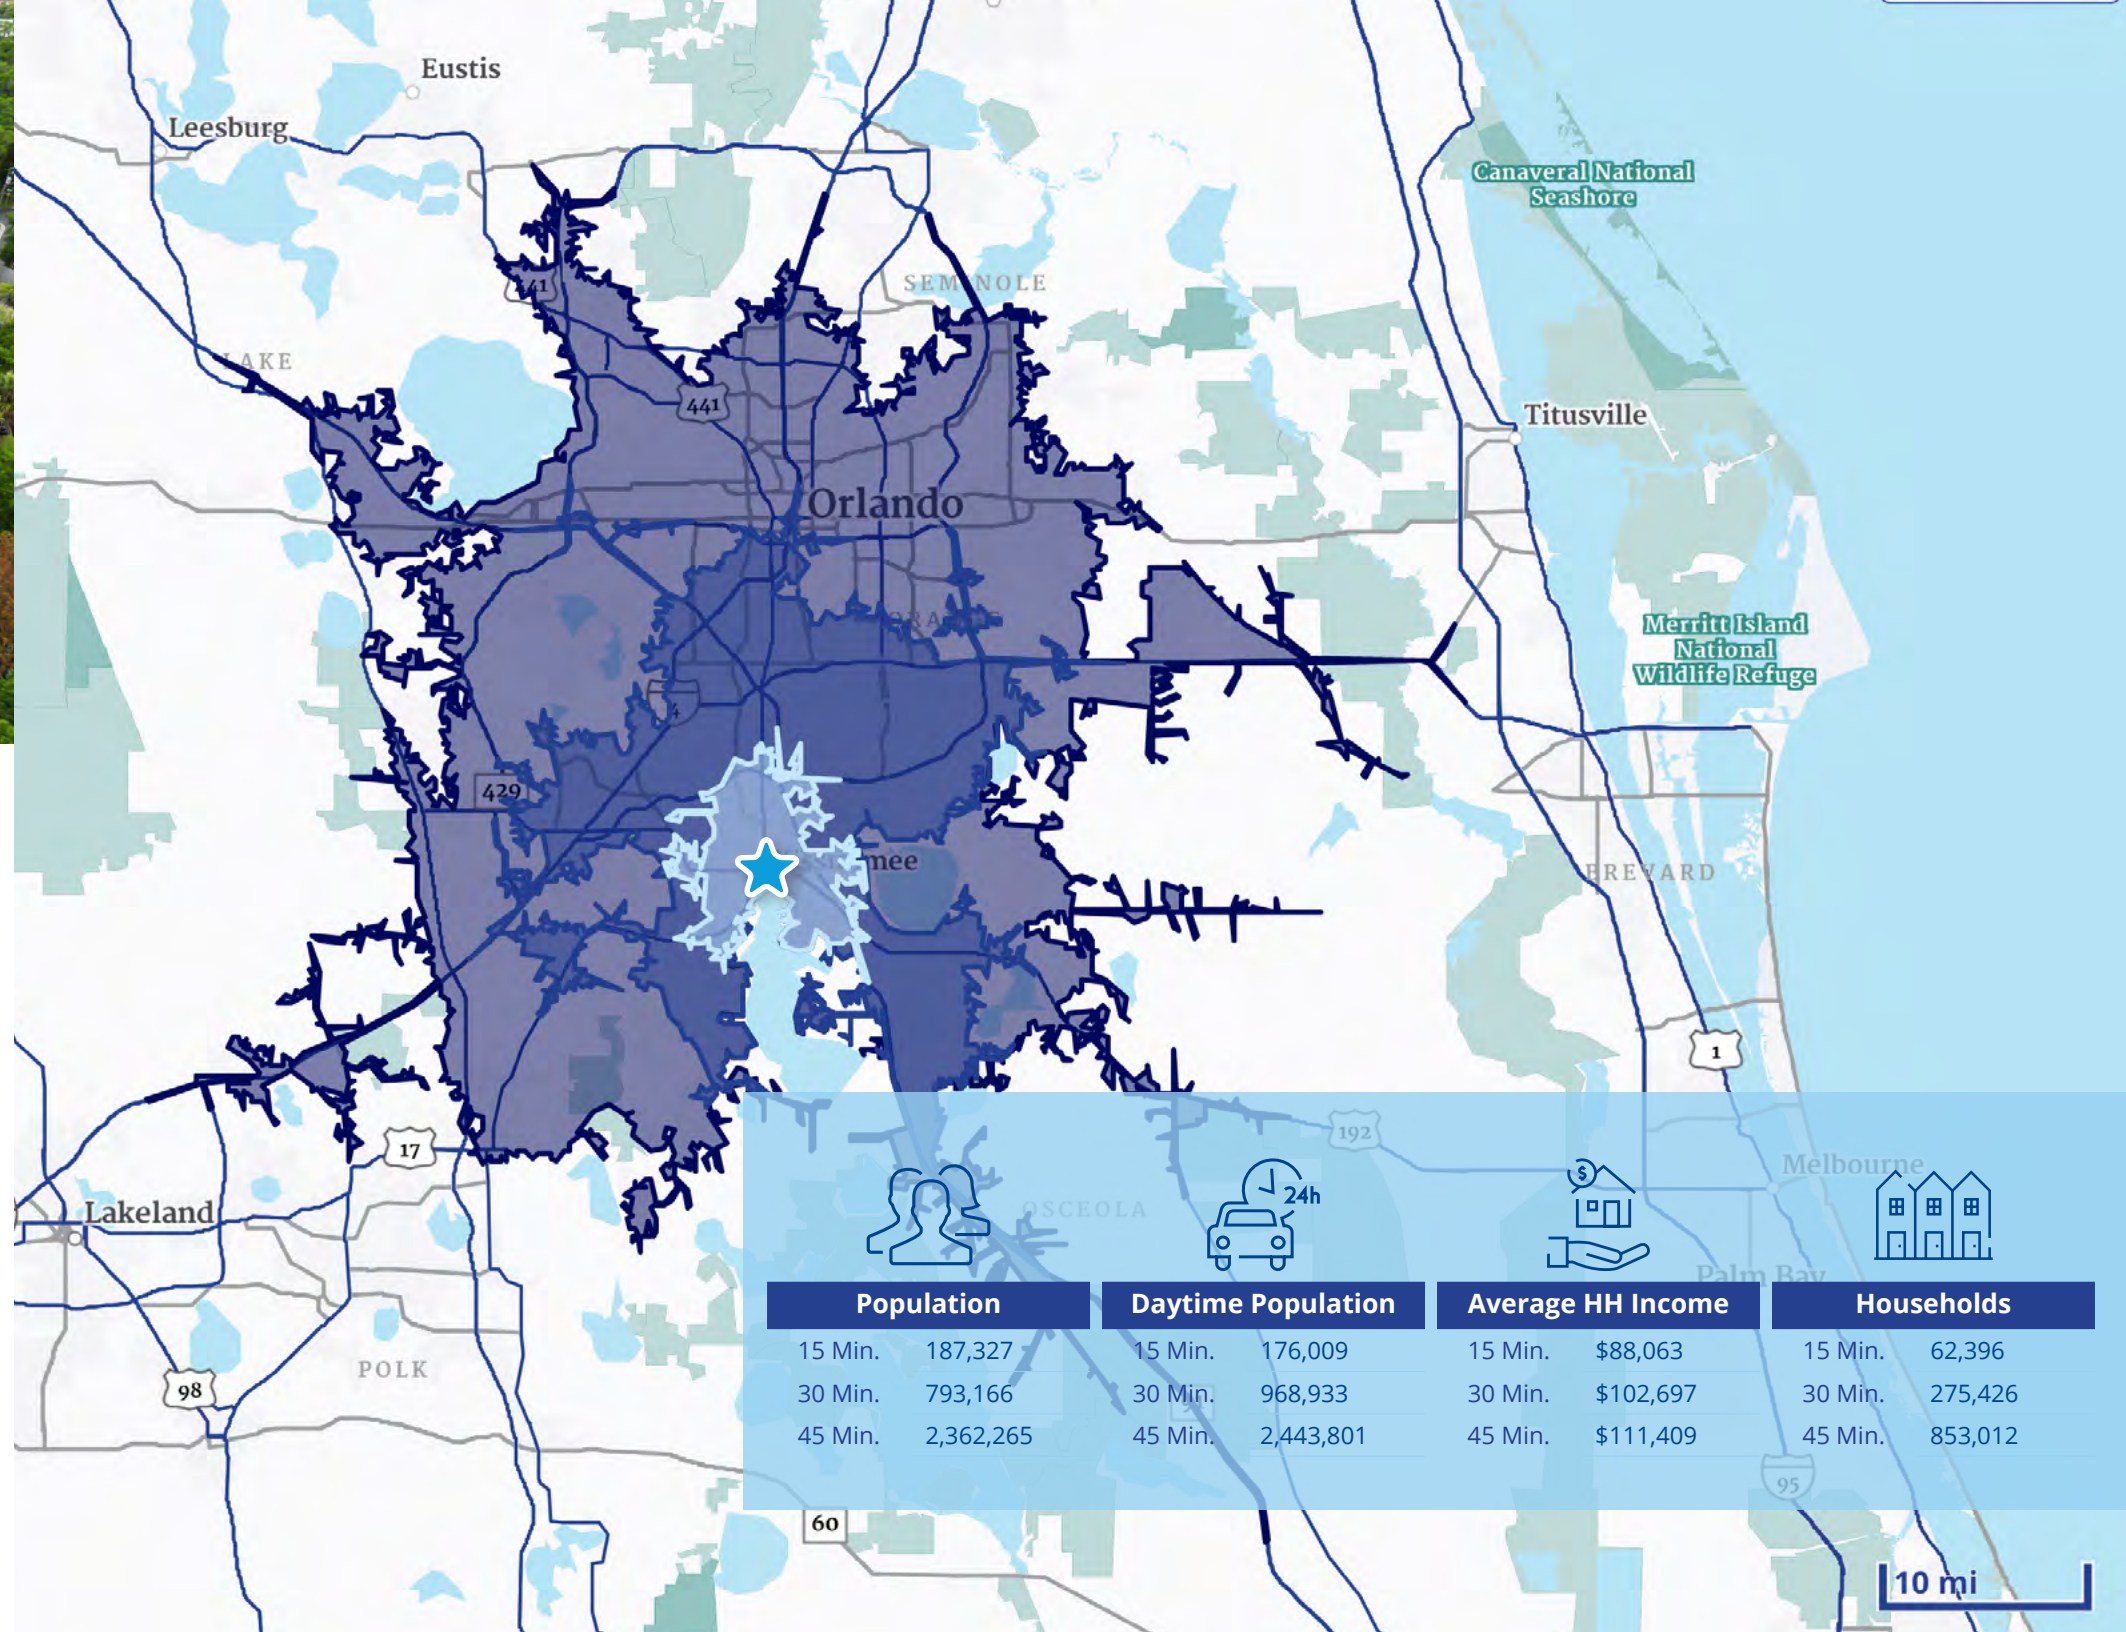

- Close Proximity to NeoCity, Orlando City Training Facility Sunrail Station, and Downtown Kissimmee
- Easy Access to US Hwy 441, FL Turnpike, I-4, 192, and 417
- Vine Street CRA District located inside the Vine Community Redevelopment Area

Freestanding Flex Building

Positioned within Osceola County Commercial Corridor with Convenient Regional Access

Kissimmee's economic fundamentals are driven by strong population growth in Osceola County and expanding tourism, e-commerce, and service-oriented industries. Anchored by major attractions such as Walt Disney World, the area benefits from steady demand for warehousing, food and beverage distribution, and related "reverse logistics" uses. These dynamics position Kissimmee as a high-growth commercial market with durable demand drivers, strong regional access, and growing appeal to both users and investors.

Offering Summary

- KB3 zoning allows for retail, restaurants, services, and more
- Versatile two-story flex building suitable for a range of uses
- Grade-level loading door providing efficient access
- Concrete surface parking for durability and low maintenance
- Fully fenced parking and lot offering added security
