#1: Recovery for a lifetime: We measure our value against our patients' ability to achieve real long-term recovery. That's why all our products and services, our culture and clinical approach are built around facilitating recovery, not just delivering treatment.

#2: Integrated Dynamic Care Model: We apply proven treatment strategies and integrate them into a dynamic and flexible care model that allows us to move patients through different avenues as their needs change and evolve. This unique, operationalized approach to integrated care ensures patients remain engaged and better understand their psychological and physiological responses along their path to recovery, which, ultimately, delivers better clinical outcomes.

#3: Expansive Service Offering: Our expansive counseling services and focus on case management deliver better guidance and consultation to patients and family members. And by offering OTP (opioid treatment programs) and OBOT (office-based opioid treatment) together in multiple locations, we expand flexibility and customization with medication types and how they're administered in the least restrictive, low-cost setting.

#4: Broader Delivery Model: As the largest network of Joint Commission-accredited OUD treatment centers in the U.S., BHG can offer patients greater access to its services, ensuring continuity along the recovery journey whether at home or traveling.

From 2023 to 2024, the number of admissions for Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) treatment has decreased.

Only 1 in 10 people with a substance use disorder receive treatment in the United States.

The number of patients who have completed their Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) treatment at the time of their discharge has been decreasing.

In Minnesota opioid-involved overdose deaths increased 43% from 2020 to 2022, and the number of deaths has more than doubled since 2019. Native American Minnesotans are dying at over nine times the rate as white Minnesotans, and Black Minnesotans at over three times the rate.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, as of June 2020, 13% of Americans reported starting or increasing substance use as a way of coping with stress or emotions related to Covid-19. A reporting system called ODMAP (Overdose Detection Mapping) shows that the early months of the pandemic brought an 18% increase nationwide in overdoses compared with those same months in 2019. The trend has continued throughout 2020, according to the American Medical Association, which reported in December that more than 40 U.S. states have seen an increase in opioid-related mortality along with ongoing concerns for those with substance use disorders.
