PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Located at the southeast corner of Hanson Street and Old Metro Parkway in Lee County, Florida, this industrial property offers businesses a strategic location and versatile industrial space. With a total building area of 130,143 square feet, including main, service, and storage buildings, it accommodates diverse industrial activities on its 13.30-acre plot within the IH (Heavy Industrial) zoning district, offering for many industrial endeavors.

Constructed in 2001, the facility features a modern design with a clear height of 24 feet, optimizing usable space for various operational needs. It enhances functionality with four large overhead doors and eight dock-high doors for seamless loading/unloading. Safety is prioritized with a comprehensive sprinkler system, and the property is fenced and gated for added security and access control.

Built with a combination of metal and CBS (Concrete Block and Stucco) materials, the property blends durability with versatility, offering a sturdy infrastructure for industrial operations. Ample parking for 180 vehicles ensures convenience, and the property is classified as Class B, providing quality industrial space.

Located just 4 miles from I-75 at a lighted intersection, the property enjoys convenient access to major transportation arteries, facilitating efficient distribution and logistics operations. With a history of industrial activity and commercial success, including previous ownership by Suncoast Beverage Sales, it presents a unique investment opportunity for growth and prosperity in the thriving industrial sector.
