

Yakhin B. Israel, CCIM is a Senior Vice President with CBRE Capital Markets' Debt & Structured Finance Group in Tampa, Florida office. He is responsible for the origination and placement of debt and equity capital for clients in the Southeast region. He is an experienced commercial finance professional with expertise in the origination and servicing of commercial real estate loans, the successful resolution of distressed situations and the disposition of both performing and distressed loans.

Prior to joining CBRE, Yakhin founded Twin Pillar Capital, a commercial real estate capital advisory firm that focused on the Southeastern United States. He also enjoyed a 15-year career with Fifth Third Bank, where he had various innovative roles in commercial real estate finance, loan sales and special asset resolution. In his last role at Fifth Third, he was responsible for building and maintaining relationships in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida and originating construction and mini-perm loans secured by income-producing commercial real estate.