

Andres possesses over 24 years of business professional experience. Over an eight-year period, Andres, was partners of a multi-million dollars distribution company, traveling abroad procuring production and overseeing sales, furthering his business experience and building personal relationships.

When, Andres, relocated to Orlando in 2008 he turned his passion into his profession, becoming a realtor, and is now building a successful business helping clients with their real estate needs. “My duty is to protect and promote the interest of my client. My approach is to provide professional and personable service.” Andres treats each of his transactions with the outmost care, and most importantly he strives to achieve the best return possible.

“My goal is to deliver world class service and build long lasting relationships, while providing my clients the appropriate information to enable them to make informed decisions.”

Andres, is honored to have been a past board member at the Rotary Club of Lake Nona, an organization that serves the community.