

Vladimir Golik
Commercial Real Estate Advisor | Co-Founder, Keller Williams Realty Premier Properties

Based in Miami, Florida, Vladimir Golik brings over 42 years of experience in commercial real estate, specializing in sales, leasing, and property management. As a CCIM designee since 2012, he is recognized for his deep industry knowledge and high professional standards.

An active investor and landlord, Vladimir has personally owned and managed more than 400 apartment units and over 80,000 square feet of office space. His hands-on expertise in asset acquisition, management, and disposition has consistently delivered value to his clients and business partners.

Vladimir's proven track record, combined with his strategic insight and commitment to excellence, make him a trusted advisor in the South Florida commercial real estate market.